AUDIT SUPERVISOR CELEBRATES 15 YEARS OF GOVERNMENT SERVICE AT OPA

The Office of Public Accountability (OPA) is pleased to announce Rodalyn May A. Gerardo's celebration of 15 years of "Auditing for Good Governance" on January 9, 2018. Rodalyn is the first OPA staff to reach this milestone. She began her audit career as one of OPA's first University of Guam (UOG) Accounting interns while completing her last semester at UOG. Subsequent to earning her Bachelors in Business Administration, majoring in Accounting, in December 2002, OPA hired her as a staff auditor in January 2003. Since then, she successfully climbed OPA ranks, from Auditor I, Auditor II, Auditor III, Chief Auditor, and Special Assistant. Rodalyn is part of OPA's management team since 2009, and supervises OPA staff in all aspects of the office-performance audits, financial audit oversight, procurement appeals, and administrative matters.

Public Auditor Doris Flores Brooks often refers to Rodalyn as the "Queen of Certifications". Rodalyn holds six professional designations- Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM), Certified Government Auditing Professional (CGAP), Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA), and Certified Internal Control Auditor (CICA). She is a member of the Association of Government Accountants (AGA), American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), Guam Society of Certified Public Accountants (GSCPA), and Institute for Internal Controls (IIC).

Rodalyn continues to be a role model for aspiring young professionals. Currently, she is continuing her education and professional development and is enrolled in a Master of Business Administration- Accounting program at Mississippi College.

Public Auditor Doris Flores Brooks presented Rodalyn the 15-year OPA recognition plaque in the presence of her children, parents, family, close friends, and OPA family.
