1 EXHIBIT A

2 Pursuant to Guam Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 45(a)(1)(D), as amended, and effective June 1, 2007:
3 (c) protection of persons subject to subpoena.

4 (1) a party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take 5 reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The 6 court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or 7 attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost 8 earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

9 (2)(a) a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books
10 papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place 11 of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

12 (b) subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit
13 inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time 14 specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, served upon the party or 15 attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of 16 the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena 17 shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to 18 an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party
19 serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time 20 for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any 21 person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the 22 inspection and copying commanded.

23 (3)(a) on timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the 24 subpoena if it:

- 25 (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
- 26 (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 27 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business 28 in person, except that such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

- (i) requires disclosure of privileged and other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(b) if a subpoena

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

- (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is address will be

1 reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specific 2 conditions.

3 (d) duties in responding to subpoena.

4 (1) a person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are 5 kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories 6 in the demand.

7 (2)(a) when information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is i privileged or 8 subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be 9 supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that 10 is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

11 (b) if information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or 12 of protection as trial preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that 13 received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly
14 return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose 15 the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to 16 the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information 17 before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the 18 information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.
