I, DONALD V. SAN AGUSTIN, declare:

I am a Paralegal and Court Certified Special Process Server with the Office Attorney General, over the age of eighteen, and not a party in interest in the above-entitled case. I attempted to serve a Subpoena Duces Tecum to:

NAME	WHERE SERVED	DATE & TIME
Richard S. Taitano	Data Management Resources, LLC 284 W. Chalan Santo Papa Hagåtña, Guam	10/26/12 at 09:30am

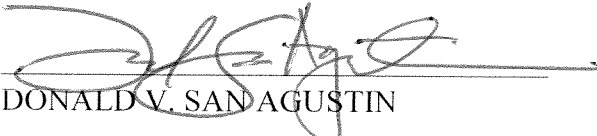

On October 26, 2012 at approximately 9:30am, I attempted to serve Mr. Taitano a Subpoena Duces Tecum at his office identified above. When I arrived at the office building, the main entrance door was locked. However, a young woman inside the building saw me attempting to open the door and let me in. I advised the woman that I was from the Attorney General's Office and was looking for a Mr. Richard S. Taitano. Before she could say anything, a tall gentleman approached us and asked what I was doing here. I stated that I was from the Attorney General's Office and had legal documents to provide Mr. Taitano. The gentleman stated that Mr. Taitano was in a conference call and that I would have to serve his attorney Jacqueline Terlaje. I advised the gentleman that I needed to serve Mr. Taitano personally. The gentleman reiterated that any legal documents, even a subpoena, would have to be served on Mr. Taitano's attorney. The gentleman then asked for my name and number and stated that he would have Mr. Taitano give me a call. I never received a call from Mr. Taitano, his attorney or any of their staff.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated this 29th day of October, 2012.

DONALD V. SAN AGUSTIN
Special Process Server, SP0249-10
